ORDER OF THE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO

No. 2020-7

(REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR SHORT TERM RESIDENTIAL RENTAL INTERMEDIARIES)

Issued and Effective: May 8, 2020

WHEREAS, COVID-19 is a communicable disease that presents an extraordinarily severe and unprecedented threat to the residents of Chicago. It is necessary and appropriate for the Commissioner of Health to take immediate measures to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the City’s residents; and

WHEREAS, After the implementation of Executive Order No. 32 issued by the Governor of Illinois (“the Stay At Home Order”), the City has responded to several large parties and other social gatherings held in residences rented through Airbnb, Homeaway, and other Short Term Residential Rental Intermediaries; and

WHEREAS, The Stay At Home Order does not limit the authority of the City of Chicago, a local government body, to enact provisions that are stricter than those in the Order, an example being provisions that require information from Short Term Residential Rental Intermediaries and prohibit illegal use of Shared Housing Units; and

WHEREAS, The Municipal Code of Chicago (“M.C.C.”) authorizes the Commissioner of Health of the City of Chicago to implement emergency measures to stop the spread of communicable diseases, and to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the City’s residents, and

WHEREAS, In order to stop the devastating spread of COVID-19, all Chicagoans must practice a strict and disciplined adherence to the Stay At Home Order’s social distancing requirements, which includes observing the prohibitions on social gatherings; now, therefore,
